THE BASTOW & BINNIE AWARD IN URBAN STUDIES is a scholarship awarded to Urban & Community Studies (UCS) majors from the University of Connecticut who seek to pursue a future related to urban studies. This year's award(s) is for $1,400.

Marc Bastow, an Urban Studies graduate, generously established this award for Urban and Community Studies students. The award(s) will be granted to students pursuing their undergraduate degree. The selection of the award will be based on academic merit, community involvement and need.

SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES:

1. Students must be a declared Urban & Community Studies major
2. Students must be enrolled full time at UConn pursuing an undergraduate degree
3. Preference will be given to students currently in their junior year, but all UCS majors are encouraged to apply, including previous applicants

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Download an application for the Bastow and Binnie Award by visiting the UCS website www.urban.uconn.edu. The application is available on the site's scholarship page, just click on the link in the middle of the page.

Page 1: Fill out your personal contact and academic information.

- Why did you choose Urban and Community Studies as your major?
- How has your academic merit and/or community involvement made you a stronger candidate for this scholarship?
- What are your career plans as it relates to Urban Studies?
- Please explain your financial need as well as what impact this scholarship would have on your education.

Finally, submit your completed application electronically to UCS, on or before this year's deadline.

For more information and an application, please visit the Urban and Community Studies' scholarship page at www.urban.uconn.edu. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Maria Winnick via e-mail at maria.winnick@uconn.edu or by phone at 959-200-3771.
